

2011 WAPI Song Lyric Contest

First prize is a voucher worth $150 redeemable at Crow Books

The WAPI Song Lyric Contest is part of the 2011 WA Poetry Festival and is coordinated by WA Poets Inc. (WAPI) at their discretion. A panel with considerable experience in music and poetry will be responsible for judging entries. All entries will be judged anonymously. The names of the Judging Panel will not be revealed to entrants until the presentation of the awards.

The first prize is a voucher worth $150 redeemable at Crow Books, 900 Albany Highway, East Victoria Park. Second and third prizes may be awarded at the discretion of the Judging Panel and will consist of books and other publications donated by other sponsors of the Festival. The WAPI Song Lyric Contest is open to writers from anywhere and is subject to a fee of $6 per entry, an entry consisting of one song lyric.

The contest is for song lyrics only – music is not required.

The deadline for entries is midnight Western Australian time 15th July 2011. Prizes will be awarded at the Presentation Evening at City Farm, 1 City Farm Place, East Perth on Friday 2nd September commencing at 7pm.
